

ELEVATE

Bringing health tech direct to the NHS

Elevate brings health tech directly into NHS organisations.

Providers engage staff in the art of the possible, showcasing curated tech for their needs.

Suppliers get real conversations, genuine opportunities, and unprecedented access at every level.

The pioneer: Engaging organisation wide

- > 500 staff attended – at almost every level.
- > Clinical people coming to a digital event.
- > The starting point of UHDB's 2026-2030 digital strategy.
- > "First of its kind" 20-year NHS veteran.
- > Engagement in digital like never before.
